

Julia Warmers, StEx.

Studied German literature, social sciences, and history (state examination). Extensive leadership experience in science, higher education, and arts management at internationally oriented institutions. Publications, lectures, and teaching on the interrelation of art and science.

As Administrative Director, she heads the Leibniz Institute for Research on Society and Space, a non-university research institution in Brandenburg, Germany. Her professional background includes positions at the Berlin University of the Arts, the Akademie Schloss Solitude in Stuttgart, and the Center for Art and Media Karlsruhe. In addition, Julia Warmers was a partner in an international festival for documentary films on art, based in Berlin, and executive board member of the Berlin University of the Arts Foundation. For the 2023–2028 term, she is a member of the University Council of the University of Arts Linz.