

SUPERVISION AGREEMENT PHD PROGRAMME

Kunstuniversität zu Linz

University of Arts in Linz

The supervision agreement, signed by all parties, must be submitted digitally to susanne.dujardin@kunstuni-linz.at no later than six months after enrolment into the PhD programme. The handout on drafting a PhD supervision agreement, which can be downloaded from the website www.kunstuni-linz.at/phd/links, provides assistance.

Supervision agreements are submitted to the Research Board for review. Meetings of the Research Board take place around mid-October, beginning of November, mid-March and beginning of April. You will be informed promptly of the outcome of the review (approval or rejection).

Supervisors and PhD-candidates agree on the following for the PhD-project:

1. Supplementary Exams

If the university has prescribed supplementary exams in order to fulfill full equivalence of studies („Gleichwertigkeit der Studienabschlüsse“), the exact form of these supplementary exams in the indicated ECTS extent must be specified here.

The following courses in the amount of ECTS (see your form „application for admission“) have to be taken and submitted with the submission of the PhD-project at the latest.

Course title, type, ECTS, teacher:

2. The PhD-project is based on the exposé as well as the time and work schedule agreed upon by the PhD-candidate and the supervisors (both attached).
3. The PhD-project is done in the following language:
4. At the end of each academic year, the PhD-candidate has to prepare a progress report on the main results of the previous academic year and a work plan on the planned steps for the following academic year and submit both to the supervisors.
5. The progress of the work is discussed in the following frequency:

Feedback meetings should take place at least twice per semester and be protocolled. Especially in the initial phase, a higher frequency of feedback meetings is recommended.

6. Media forms of the PhD-project:
e.g.: written work of xy pages, artistic works such as film, drawings, photographs, development of an interface, exhibition etc.

7. Further performance elements for the acquisition of extended skills and additional qualifications to the extent of a maximum of 20 ECTS credits or a maximum workload of 500 real hours are to be agreed individually. These performance elements can include, for example, attendance of courses (research seminars, colloquia, privatissima, etc.) at internal or external institutions and research facilities, participation in exhibitions and conferences, workshops, collaboration in or curation of exhibitions, artistic productions, publications, reports to supervisors, etc. (Curriculum, § 3 (3)).

Agreed-Upon Elements of Performance:

8. PhD-candidates are expected to participate in the PhD-conferences of the Arts University Linz, the „PhD-Colloquia“. PhD-candidates are required to give at least one public presentation of the PhD-project at the Arts University Linz.

9. The PhD-candidate undertakes to comply with the *Rules of Good Scientific Practice*¹.
10. The supervision agreement can be amended or slightly changed by the PhD-candidates and the supervisors in the course of the PhD programme. These amendments or changes are to be submitted in writing to the Department Art.Research | PhD. Likewise, the Department Art.Research | PhD must be informed of the dissolution of the supervision relationship. In the event of a change of a supervisor, a new supervision agreement must be concluded. New supervision agreements as well as significant changes to the supervision agreement must be submitted via the Department of Art.Research | PhD to the Research Board for approval.
11. The following enclosures are part of the PhD Supervision Agreement and must therefore be submitted with it:
 - Exposé
