

COMPETITION RULES

PARTICIPANTS

Entrance is open to young people of any nationality who are aged between 18 and 35 years.

THEME OF THE COMPETITION

This is open, although for added merit the work presented should bear some relationship to the world of art from the historic or creative point of view, manifested either, in the inspiration behind the collection itself or in specific references: fabric prints, shapes, details etc.

The Jury will pay special attention to the creativity, the quality of the finish and the elegance of the works presented.

All collections must be original without having been won any other competition.

COMPETITION BREAKDOWN

Participants may enter for two separate categories:

CATEGORY A: Outfit Design

- * 1. Participants must present sketches for THREE OUTFITS. Each sketch must include at least one DIN A3 (42cm x 29.7cm) sized rendering of front and back views. Attached separately there should also be a detailed description of the outfit's manufacture and its relationship with the world of art.
- * One of the outfits must be presented as a completely finished work in fabric (Size 38/40 Esp/Fr; 42/44 It; 8/10 USA; 10/12 UK).

Each participant must name their collection.

CATEGORY B: Accessory Design

- * 1. Participants must present sketches for THREE ACCESSORIES (shoes, bags, hats, jewelry, belts etc.). Each sketch must be done on DIN A3 (42cm x 29.7cm), along with a detailed description of the accessory's manufacture and its relationship with the world of art.
- * 2. One of the accessories must be presented as a completely finished work in its corresponding material.

Each participant must name their collection.

Each participant can attend both categories.

Each participant must be individual.

The jury will gather on March 2018 to select the finalist works. Participants whose works are selected as finalists, will be informed asap and they should send the other two sketches presented, as completely finished works in their corresponding materials.

The jury will gather again on May 2018 to select the winners of both categories. The Awards Ceremony will be held on June 2018.
