NON-DEGREE PROGRAMMES

For non-degree-seeking students who are admitted exclusively to individual courses in scientific subjects.

Non-degree programmes

Non-degree-seeking students are entitled to attend regular courses in scientific subjects. Registration for regular courses should be made only after getting in touch with the respective lecturer. When the number of places in a course is limited, regular students are preferred / non-degree-seeking students can be rejected. An overview of all university courses is available here:
https://ufgonline.ufg.ac.at/ufg_online/studienplaene.studienrichtungen?corg_nr=1&csprache_nr=2&csj_nr=&cmode=&pStatusTyp=N&pGrouping=A

No graduation can be attained, when pursuing a non-degree programme.

Expiry of admission to non-degree programmes

Admission to the non-degree programme expires, if students

1. de-register, or
2. fail to register for the continuation of studies (are not paying the tuition fees for the following semester).

CO-REGISTERED STUDENTS

When students are already enrolled at another public university (their "primary" university), but intend to attend courses at the University of Arts Linz, they need to co-register. Co-registration has to be renewed for each semester in which students want to study at the University of Arts Linz. Academic achievements can only be transferred to the primary university, when official co-registration has been completed.

Required documents and confirmations:

- confirmation from the responsible university body (primary university) for the current semester*
  if you are enrolled in a course of study also offered at the University of Arts Linz
- student ID*
- current record of studies*
- online pre-registration – your personal data has to be entered into our system ufgonline
- co-registration has to be renewed each semester
- students of the Catholic Private University Linz as well as the Anton Bruckner Private University Linz have to pay the ÖH-fee at the University of Arts Linz to complete co-registration
